The Business of Law

CHANGE, FOR THE BETTER

From taxis and travel agencies to music and media, digital technology has managed to transform entire industries over the last 20 years. The GLS group has always been inspired by innovation, and with our industry slow to grasp efficiencies, it was clear that the legal industry needed to start moving with the times.

INEFFICIENCY, DISRUPTED

Not everything called for change. There will always be a need for great lawyers and bespoke representation. However, the problem the business community faced was the time and cost of supporting legal functions – specifically the more routine legal operations and processes that could be significantly improved with technology.

THE NEXT GENERATION OF LAW HAS ARRIVED

The GLS group of companies set to work defining legal functions and processes that could be automated and creating products that reduced the grind of legal administration. By unleashing a variety of productivity scenarios and providing a template for operational efficiency, we are proud to introduce a new era of law for the global business community.

LAW REWRITTEN

The GLS Group began its journey as a disruptive boutique law firm looking after some of the world's biggest corporate clients. We quickly discovered many areas of in-house legal operations that needed improvement. Today, meeting the performance needs of the in-house legal community is our fulltime business.

To this end we have focused on developing digital products that can be tailored to our client's specific needs, and quickly deployed to enhance performance. At the same time, we have focused on improving business-related law services that were neglected because they weren't deemed lucrative enough.

This has brought us to answer our greater purpose; which is to create optimally efficient, affordable legal services that benefit the world. An ordinary law firm cannot offer this. But then, this is not an ordinary law firm.
